Special Education Advisory Council (SEAC) Communications Committee

Calling all Student Support Services (SSS) Parents and Staff Members!

We are putting together a Special Education Advisory Council (SEAC) Communications Committee in an effort to help us reach every parent within NSD who has a child with an IEP and/or 504 plan.

The vision of this soon-to-be SEAC committee is to let SSS families know of all the resources available to them, including information around SEAC parents and school representatives. We are looking for parents and staff members who would like to help us reach as many families as possible in creative ways through school newsletters and social media.

The SEAC Communications Committee will be a small group of dedicated individuals who will work together to expand the number of parents/guardians who access and understand the purpose of the SEAC meetings and SEAC representatives.

NSD's SEAC has quickly become a valuable platform that provides parents and staff members an opportunity to be heard, collaborate with one another, and brainstorm solutions to current special education topics.

If being a member of the SEAC Communications Committee is something you would enjoy, we would like to talk to you!

Please email us with your interest.
